

Summer Writing Challenge

See how many of these fun summer activities you can do before the weather gets cold!

Work with your family to set goals and then celebrate using the rewards suggested here!

Get Those Crayons Out!

- Draw a picture. Label the things in it.
- Draw a picture. Write a caption under it.
- Draw your favorite animal. Label its body parts.

Lovin' the lists!

- Make a list of people you know
- Make a list of people who love you
- Make a list of reasons why you love somebody
- Make a list of what you did today
- Make a list of what you want to do this summer
- Make a shopping list

Be a Map Maker!

- Write directions of how to get somewhere.
- Make a sign for your door.
- Make a map that shows how to get to the corner store, the pool, the park
- Make a diagram of your house
- Draw your room. Label everything in it.

Touch Base with Technology:

- Send a text
- Post something on Twitter or Facebook
- Send an email
- Text a picture to a family member and write a fun caption

Write Like an Author!

- Make your own ABC book.
- Write a fairy tale.
- Write a recipe.
- Make a sign (for sale, happy birthday!, keep out!)
- Write how to do something.

Think About Things!

- Write about your weekend.
- Write about your vacation.
- Keep a journal. Write your thoughts each day.
- Write a wish list.
- Read a book and write about what you learned
- Watch a movie, write a review about it.
- Make as many words as you can from the letters in SUMMERTIME.

Rewards:

Summertime is sensational, especially after you've met some fun learning goals! Ask your family members to help you celebrate!

1-2 Activities

- Take a walk with someone you love.
- Sit and read a book with someone special.
- Watch a favorite movie
- Make a sundae.

- Have a soft pretzel.
- Buy something from the Dollar Store
- Get ice cream
- Get a donut

3-4 Activities

- Spend a dollar on anything you want!
- Enjoy Water Ice!
- Eat a Philly Cheese Steak!

5-6 Activities

- Go on a shopping trip.
- Visit a museum
- Go to the park
- Play under a water fountain.
- Go to the library
- Go swimming